“Sally was a vital, positive and engaging Chairperson and expert speaker at the EA/PA Skills Forum, which I produced for Tonkin Corporation. Sally was a popular speaker and a vital element of the forum. Her energy and enthusiasm for her subject is infectious, her delivery I would describe as electric as she buzzes across the stage. One delegate described her in the feedback as simply "Brilliant." I highly recommend Sally as a coach and speaker.”

Clare Mansbridge, Communications Events Project Manager

“Sally presented an informative, practical and relevant training session to The Speakers Practice - Practice Forum. Sally quickly engaged with the group and kept their interest for the whole session. It was a highly interactive session and the group felt comfortable to enter into discussions with Sally. Certainly, all the groups needs were addressed and the attendees felt comfortable with discussing the issues raised. The session was practical and handled with experience to an adult audience. I can highly recommend Sally as an experienced Trainer and Coach. Sally is highly professional and is very approachable and friendly. Thanks Sally for your brilliant training session.”

To Whom It May Concern

CCSA is a trusted not for profit organisation providing specialist information and support in governance, management, compliance, business support and workplace relations for early childhood education and care services.

CCSA engaged Sally to present a keynote, master class and workshop at our recent Leadership Day, followed by our conference, Continuing the conversation: are all the voices being heard? which was held at the Hunter Valley Crowne Plaza on 17-19 October 2013.

The presentations included:

- 1 hour keynote: Collaborative Leadership (60 delegates)
- 3 hour master class: Addressing issues quickly and effectively (35 delegates)
- 1 hour workshop: The Big 3: get these sorted and you'll be a more productive and successful director (77 delegates)

Overwhelmingly, delegates strongly agreed that the presentations met their expectations, were practical, thought provoking and provided useful examples they could apply at work. Delegates particularly enjoyed the opportunities to collaborate with and learn from their peers.

Sally's knowledge and expertise in communication skills was clearly evident, with delegates requesting feedback about how they could approach certain issues within their own organisations.

Sally's presenting style is energetic, fun, down to earth and professional. She has the ability to present concepts and practical solutions in an easy to understand way with lots of laughter. There were definitely lots of 'light-bulb' moments as delegates reflected on how they could enhance their own communication skills.

I highly recommend Sally for future speaking roles.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Sally,

Thank you so very much for your presentation yesterday at the Big Day for Small Business.

I was so pleased, and honoured, that you accepted our invitation to present as the opening keynote speaker. I knew your presentation would be engaging and though provoking – but you completely exceeded any expectations with regards to your humour, candid approach and the quality and depth of the information you provided.

Thank you!

Throughout the day, I received many positive comments from attendees: your presentation was just what they needed to hear and your tips and activities challenged them to look at where and how they could make small but significant changes to make life in business better.

When I first spoke to you about this event, I mentioned that our goal was for attendees to leave thinking "Wow – that was exactly the information I needed right now, I'm so glad I came". You absolutely understood that goal and delivered on it.

Again, thank you!

For me, the simple multi-tasking was a complete eye-opener. So simple yet so powerful in illustrating a major area where I am wasting precious productivity, not to mention sanity in trying to get everything done at once, yet not really achieving anything.

Thank you!

On behalf of the Samford & Districts Chamber of Commerce I would openly and gladly recommend you to any business group, organisation or department who is looking for an engaging, entertaining, articulate and friendly speaker. It was clear that you spent time and effort personalising your presentation to the theme of our event and the nature of our attendees, making the information particularly relevant and meaningful to them. Your professionalism and passion showed at every step, and it was a pleasure to meet you and learn from you.

I believe that the success of our event yesterday (the first we had undertaken of this kind) was greatly enhanced by you, and as the event organiser it was an absolute pleasure to work with you.

Once again, thank you!

Kind regards,
